MESSAGE OUTLINE

Light of the Lord - Peace

Jamie Nelson - Pastor of Student Ministries

Isaiah 2:1-5 (NIV)

This is what Isaiah son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem:

²In the last days

the mountain of the Lord's temple will be established as the highest of the mountains;
it will be exalted above the hills,
and all nations will stream to it.

³Many peoples will come and say,

"Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord,
to the temple of the God of Jacob.

He will teach us his ways,

so that we may walk in his paths."

The law will go out from Zion,

the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

⁴He will judge between the nations

and will settle disputes for many peoples.

They will beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks.

Nation will not take up sword against nation,

nor will they train for war anymore.

⁵Come, descendants of Jacob,

let us walk in the light of the Lord.

NOTES:

1. Peace begins with worship.

Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the temple of the God of Jacob.

2. The Lord's law and judgment are instruments of peace.

The law will go out from Zion, the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. He will judge between the nations and will settle disputes for many peoples.

3. The way of peace is walking in the light of the Lord.

Let us walk in the light of the LORD.

There is no way to peace along the way of safety. For peace must be dared. It is itself the great venture and can never be safe. Peace is the opposite of security. To demand guarantees is to want to protect oneself. Peace means giving oneself completely to God's commandment. Wanting no security, but in faith and obedience laying the destiny of the nations in the hand of almighty God. Not trying to direct it for selfish purposes. Battles are won not with weapons, but with God. They are won when the way leads to the cross. -Dietrich Bonhoeffer

Giving is the very heart of Christmas story, and it is the heart of our market as well. Each gift in this catalog makes an impact on real lives in our community and around the world. You can buy a gift in someone's honor as an alternative to buying material items as gifts during the holiday season.
