PSALM 15 (NIV)

A psalm of David.

- 1 Lord, who may dwell in your sacred tent?
Who may live on your holy mountain?
- 2 The one whose walk is blameless,
who does what is righteous,
who speaks the truth from their heart;
- 3 whose tongue utters no slander,
who does no wrong to a neighbor,
and casts no slur on others;
- 4 who despises a vile person
but honors those who fear the Lord;
who keeps an oath even when it hurts,
and does not change their mind;
- 5 who lends money to the poor without interest;
who does not accept a bribe against the innocent.

Whoever does these things will never be shaken.

1. The Question

Lord, who may dwell in your sacred tent? Who may live on your holy mountain? (v. 1)

2. The Answer

The one whose walk is blameless, who does what is righteous, who speaks the truth from their heart; (v. 2)

...whose tongue utters no slander, who does no wrong to a neighbor, and casts no slur on others; (v. 3)

...who despises a vile person but honors those who fear the Lord; who keeps an oath even when it hurts, and does not change their mind; who lends money to the poor without interest; who does not accept a bribe against the innocent. (v. 4–5a)

3. The Promise

Whoever does these things will never be shaken. (v. 5b)

4. The Application

The lifestyle of the believer in the world is the most powerful exegesis of the Bible. As the believer interacts with all the subsystems of society in their daily activities, it is expected that believers will powerfully impact society. Coming to worship is complemented by being sent to the world!
