Contact: Vacations to Go – Group Representative, Pack Packard at 1-800-338-4962 ext. 7231 for reservations. Office hours: Sun: 9am – 6 pm, or Mon-Thurs: 11 am – 8 pm, Central time.

Deposit: $300 per cabin/$150 per person (nonrefundable – but covered with travel insurance if you purchase at time of booking – Travel insurance is highly recommended).

Inside cabin: $249 cruise fare & port fees, plus taxes of $156. Total per person:
$405 for 5 nights and 6 days. A $50 per cabin/$25 per person on-board credit is currently available for bookings. If you don't have a roommate or want a private room, the charge will be double.

Outside cabin: $349 plus port fees and taxes....

All types of cabins are available. Please let "Pack" know when you call.

You can choose a specific cabin or opt for “best available”. If you want one near an elevator, please state that when booking. Often, if ocean view cabins are not booked, inside “best available” becomes yours!!

Pastor John and Connie Illian plan to be on this trip and will host a time of fellowship/devotions each day. Camille Clemens and Pat Kellenbarger are very experienced with this particular trip and happily will answer any questions you may have...just ask!

The ship docks in Vancouver at 7 a.m. on Sun. April 28th and the buses to Seattle leave before 10 a.m. There are a few options for transportation to Seattle, for an additional fee. Information/reservations on this transfer service will be available shortly. Currently, prices range from $30 to $130 per person, depending on type of transfer service.

Once off the ship, the rest of the trip is up to you.

There are non-stop late afternoon flights back to San Diego.....or you can fly home from Vancouver (more expensive)....or visit longer in the Seattle area....or take a cruise into Alaska...or take Amtrak home to San Diego.

Note:

Return travel is your choice: Flight or Amtrak train. Alaska Airlines offers reasonable, non-stop flights from Seattle to San Diego. Southwest offers flexible flights w/1 stop.

Transportation to the cruise ship terminal in San Diego, and return from the San Diego Airport or Train station is not included.

We are planning a pre-trip gathering to meet everyone and get acquainted. Info on this gathering will be available in the near future.
